Outstanding Student Leader Award and Valerie Dougherty, Unsung Hero Award.

Commissioners and volunteers were reminded to register and invite at least one guest.

- Update on Human Trafficking Committee activities

- i. The Committee continues to meet regularly on the first Monday of each month at 6pm in Winchester Hall.
- ii. One of our volunteers sponsored the purchase of some films that are available to screen or borrow. These films will be stored at the CFW office.
- iii. Human Trafficking Survivor lecture and book reading, Wednesday, April 20 from 12:30-1:45 at FCC.
  1. FCC, Heartly House, and the FCCFW will collaborate in coordinating and publicizing the event.

- 2016 Hispanic Commission Legislative Agenda Forum. At the current time, the Governor is focusing on businesses and not individual needs.

- Listen to the Rhythm of your Heart Several Commissioners and Volunteers assisted with this event to promote Women's Health.

- SheLEADS

- i. The final session was held on Friday, February 12.
- ii. We will soon begin planning the next phases of our program. We are considering our next steps for the existing participants, including possible mentorship and a summer leadership series. We are also considering how to build on the experience of this years' program for next year with potentially more participants, more or longer sessions, and/or additional schools. There has been a request to also bring this program to Walkersville High School. Some of the participants are looking for summer internships and mentors. Discussion regarding approaching the Woman-to-Woman Mentoring Program.
